As you requested, here is a note from me on the details of the White House Correspondents Dinner:

The dinner is a black tie, "stag" affair at the Washington Hilton Hotel, Connecticut Avenue and Columbia Road, on Friday, 13 April. Wives will not be attending. The only women who will be there are those in journalism and politics. The reception is at 6:30 p.m. on the Terrace Level and dinner is at 7:30 p.m. in the International Ballroom. Mr. Prina, Washington bureau chief of the Copley News Service, will meet the DCI at the registration desk which is at the Connecticut Street entrance of the hotel. Rich Little is the main entertainer for the evening. No reminders of the dinner are being sent.
